The U.S. Department of State reserves the right to amend this list at any time.

Study abroad for an academic year on a full scholarship with the U.S. Department of State's Kennedy-Lugar Youth Exchange and Study (YES) Abroad program. High school students and recent graduates explore a new country by living with a host family, studying in a local school, and participating in community activities.

YES Abroad is an exciting academic year international exchange program that promotes respectful and enduring relationships between American teens and people around the world. Young Americans who are currently enrolled in high school with a desire to immerse themselves in another culture are encouraged to apply for this scholarship. YES Abroad welcomes applicants that represent the diversity of the United States, including students with disabilities.
